STUDENT NURSING ASSISTANT

8-Week Paid Training Program | On-site

Wage: $18.63/hr

Modoc Medical Center (MMC) is now accepting applications for our upcoming Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) Training Class starting Wednesday, October 8, 2025. This paid, 8-week program provides the skills and experience needed to begin a career as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Students receive classroom instruction, hands-on clinical training, and wages while learning. Upon completion, participants are prepared to take the California CNA certification exam and start working as a CNA.

What CNAs Do

- Assist patients and residents with daily living activities (bathing, feeding, mobility)
- Monitor and report health changes to licensed nursing staff
- Provide comfort, support, and companionship
- Promote safety, dignity, and quality of life in care settings

What You'll Gain in Our Program

- 8 weeks of classroom and hands-on clinical instruction
- Paid training while you learn
- Support and mentorship from experienced instructors
- Preparation for the California CNA certification exam
- A strong foundation for future healthcare careers (LVN, RN, and beyond)
- Job opportunities with MMC upon certification

Eligibility

- Must be at least 18 years of age
- High school diploma or equivalent preferred
- Interest in healthcare and helping others
- Commitment to complete the 8-week program and state testing requirements
- Must successfully complete a pre-employment physical, background check, and drug screen

Applications must include a short essay describing why you want to become a CNA and what the role means to you
